SPECTRAL SLICK

Consumable (Common)

Source: Home-brew
Store in: vial
Use as ingredient for: Potions, Scrolls, Spells
Crafting Value (when used as ingredient): 13 GP
Use: Weapon enchant, Absorb
Description: A transparent slick left behind by Specters.
You can use a Bonus Action to apply this to a weapon. When applied to a weapon, add +1d4 Necrotic damage to attacks with that weapon for 1 minute.
Alternatively, you can consume all its necrotic energy to add a +1 to hit or spell save DC to cast a Necromancy spell.

Cooking Effect: When added to food that is cooked thoroughly, up to 4 people can gain a small resistance to Necrotic damage for an hour. When you would take Necrotic damage under this effect, subtract 1 point of damage.

DARK DUST

Consumable (Uncommon)

Source: Home-brew
Store in: vial, cloth
Use as ingredient for: Potions, Scrolls, Weapons, Armor, Shields
Crafting Value (when used as ingredient): 50 GP
Use: Throw, Sprinkle
Description: The Phantom Trainhopper was incorporeal and made of shadows, but however implausible you have found a dark dust left behind after defeating it. When sprinkled or thrown on the floor, magical darkness spreads from it in a 10 ft radius sphere for 1 minute. If sprinkled on an object that isn't worn or carried, the darkness emanates from it and will disappear if covered with something opaque such as a bowl or helm. If any of this item's area overlaps with bright light or dim light created by a spell level 2 or higher, the darkness disappears. If the area overlaps with bright light or dim light from a spell lower than 2, that other spell is dissipated. If a non-monster creature starts within the darkness or enters the darkness on subsequent turns, they must succeed on a DC 13 Wisdom Saving Throw or take 1d6 Psychic damage at the start of each turn spent in the darkness.

Cooking Effect: When added as a spice to food, up to 4 people can become a bit darker for 1 hour. When under this effect, a 1 ft radius around you becomes dim light.

HAINT HOOCH BASE

Consumable (Uncommon)

SOUL COAL

Consumable (Uncommon)

Source: Home-brew
Store in: pouch
Use as ingredient for: Potions, Scrolls, Weapons, Armor, Shields, Rods (Fire), Wands (Fire), Staffs (Fire), Rings (Fire), Wondrous Items (fire)
Crafting Value (when used as ingredient): 50 GP
Use: Weapon enchant, Torch
Description: Left behind Haints that don't find peace for too long end up becoming Soul Coal.
You can use a Bonus Action to apply this to a weapon. When applied to a weapon, add +1d4 Fire and +1d4 Necrotic damage to attacks with that weapon for 10 minutes, and attacks to incorporeal creatures ignore resistances to slashing, bludgeoning or piercing damage.
If used on the end of a torch, the fuel lasts for 1 hour, it sheds green-blue Bright Light in a 30 ft radius and Dim Light for an additional 30 ft, and incorporeal creatures illuminated by it become corporeal losing any resistances to slashing, bludgeoning and piercing damage when affected like this.
Cooking Effect: When used as fuel in a fire to cook, you can prepare food for up to 4 people. When eaten, for the next hour you emit a faint blue-green glow and are surrounded by a 5 ft emanation of Bright Light. Incorporeal creatures in the emanation become semi-corporeal. Whenever they would resist Bludgeoning, Slashing, or Piercing damage because of their being

Consumable (Rare)

Source: Home-brew
Store in: vial
Use as ingredient for: Potions, Scrolls, Weapons, Armor, Shields, Rods (Fire), Wands (Fire), Staffs (Fire), Rings (Fire), Wondrous Items (fire)
Crafting Value (when used as ingredient): 500 GP
Use: Weapon enchant, Armor enchant, Torch, Lantern
Description: The wheels of the Ghostlight Locomotive are lubricated with a ghostly grease that still keeps a bit of its power.
You can use a Bonus Action to apply this to a weapon. When applied to a weapon, add +1d6 Fire and +1d6 Necrotic damage to attacks with that weapon for 1 hour, and attacks to incorporeal creatures ignore resistances to slashing, bludgeoning or piercing damage. If used on an armor or a shield, it grants resistance to necrotic and fire damage for 1 hour.
When used as fuel for a torch or lantern, it temporarily becoems magical for the duration of the fuel (6 hours). Mixing other fuels does not extend this time, but turning the lantern off can be done to save the remaining fuel for later. In the case of a torch it sheds green-blue Bright Light for 30 ft and Dim Light for 30 ft, or Bright Light in a 50 ft radius and Dim Light for an additional 50 ft for a hooded lantern, or 70 ft cone Bright light and 70 ft Dim Light for a bullseye lantern, and incorporeal creatures illuminated by it become corporeal, losing any resistances to slashing,
